

Notice to Customers
Regarding the 2008 Los Angeles Codes

All Plans submitted after January 1, 2008 shall be required to comply with 2008 Los Angeles Building Code, 2008 Los Angeles Electrical Code, 2008 Los Angeles Plumbing and 2008 Los Angeles Mechanical Code.

The 2008 Los Angeles Codes are based on the 2007 California Building, Electrical, Plumbing and Mechanical Code that are available for purchase through your local technical Bookstores. The City Amendments will be available in the near future.

Please refer to the Codes page for purchase information.
